Memorandum for: Deputy Director (Support)

Subject: Budget Presentation for Office of Security

1. Pursuant to your oral request, there follows a statement in support of the personnel staffing of the Office of Security.

2. Our Security Office investigates and evaluates approximately 500 to 700 persons monthly who are either applicants, contractors, or persons of more or less overt interest to the Agency. These investigations include careful security interrogation of applicants before they have access to classified information. In addition,

4. Fully aware that our personnel, installations (including ☐) and activities are top targets of foreign intelligence, we maintain a strict system of physical security controls consisting of guards, receptionists, entrance badge system, and safekeeping equipment such as safes, vaults, alarms, etc.

5. The Office of Security monitors our "need to know" system, including compartmentation of activities, and is also charged with continuing security policy advice and guidance to the many components of the Agency in their planning and conduct of both routine business and specific intelligence operations. This includes arrangements to the Office of Security. Individual advice and guidance is furnished to employees in maintaining their own personal security in such matters as maintenance of cover, contacts with foreign nationals, public appearances, and many other individual problems inherent to intelligence operatives.

6. The build-up and maintenance of an extensive security file system and of dossiers on persons of CIA interest is an essential to the secure operation of the Agency and in the prevention of possible subversive attempts against the Agency or of penetrations within.

7. An outline of the personnel required to perform these many functions is attached.
